

10 things I can do at home to improve my English

- Listen to podcasts on my phone e.g. BBC Radio - The English We Speak.
- Watch DVDs or TV where I can stop, go back and listen again if I need to.
- Borrow books with audio from school or the library so I can listen and read.
- Write down new words and their meanings in a notebook or on my phone.
- Have English radio on in the background so I can tune into how it sounds.
- Record myself speaking English, for example by reading aloud or copying someone speaking English on the TV.
- Practise English grammar and vocabulary using lessons on the British Council's <https://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/> website.
- Use the BBC's Learning English App on my phone to practise all my skills.

It's BBC Learning English – in your pocket!

Listen to a programme then listen again whilst reading the transcript

Download audio programmes and listen offline

- Do a free British Council FutureLearn online course, for example the 4 week course on Exploring English: Language and Culture.
- Write a few sentences of a diary or blog in English each day and if you like ask a friend or teacher to check it for you.